On behalf of the American Society of Head and Neck Radiology I'm delighted to welcome you to the 53rd Annual Meeting of the ASHNR, which will be held in Scottsdale, Arizona from Wednesday, October 2 – Sunday, October 6, 2019. Head and Neck Imaging in the Valley of the Sun will kick off with the Early Bird Session on Wednesday morning titled Errors are Opportunities: Mistakes, Misses & Difficult Diagnoses. A theme of mentoring will be emphasized in this opening session, reprised in the popular "Pearl from My Mentor" presentations, and discussed in detail during a Mentoring Meal, to be held during the meeting for trainees and faculty who have newly embarked on their careers.

Lectures will incorporate basic core and advanced, specialized topics on a wide variety of head and neck imaging topics, including applied anatomy and disease processes involving the orbits, sinonasal regions, skull base, temporal bones, lymph nodes & glands, H & N spaces, teeth and jaws. There will also be a new session on Artificial Intelligence. In total there will be 28.75 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™] and 5 SAM sessions, with talks from approximately 80 talented speakers, considered experts in their field, including 10 rising stars whom we warmly welcome to the ASHNR meeting podium.

The beautiful and tranquil Westin Kierland Resort & Spa, located near the McDowell Mountains in Scottsdale, with panoramic views of surrounding mountains, celebrates the rich legacy of Arizona. Accessible from major cities by direct flights to Phoenix, the resort is located about 20 miles from the airport. Resort features include a world class Golf Club, the Agave Spa, a 24 hour fitness studio, swimming pools, tennis courts, bike rentals, babysitting services, a kids club and several excellent restaurants. Cats and dogs are also welcome! Abundant dining, retail and entertainment options are located within walking distance. Scottsdale and nearby Phoenix offer a wealth of activities including innumerable great hiking trails, hot air ballooning, OdySea Aquarium, Butterfly Wonderland, Desert Botanical Garden, and a variety of museums and art galleries. In closing, I am honored to invite you to attend the 53rd Annual ASHNR meeting for abundant excellent educational opportunities, to reconnect with and make new friends and to enjoy the gorgeous Valley of the Sun.
